NEW: 'Bounds of Advocacy' Guide Released

The Family Law Section Ad Hoc Bounds of Advocacy Committee has released the newly revised "Bounds of Advocacy," a guide intended to lead Florida family lawyers through the quagmire of professional and ethical dilemmas that are unique to the practice of family law.

The publication --- now available online ---

AVVO Report Now Available

The 2018 Martindale® Attorney Compensation Report is now available! Over 7,800 attorneys responded, leading to some interesting insights.

Highlights from the 21-page report include:

- In 2017, U.S. solo and small law firm attorneys earned an average of $198,000 annually.

offers goals for professional cooperation, competence and advice, conflict of interest, fees and children. It suggests a higher level of practice than the minimum baseline of conduct required by The Florida Bar rules and spells out guidelines for situations that often arise in family law where the rules don't provide sufficient guidance.

Florida Bar Family Law Section members will receive copies of the publication by mail.

- Intellectual property attorneys made the most; immigration attorneys made the least.
- The largest group to report an increase in income in 2017 was under the age of 35.
